

TEAM Project

The TEAM Project aimed to strengthen educational and research capacity in the fields of digital dentistry, dentomaxillofacial imaging, artificial intelligence, and advanced healthcare technologies.

Through specialized courses, workshops, educational resources, and support for young researchers, the project promoted the integration of digital technologies into dental education and clinical practice.

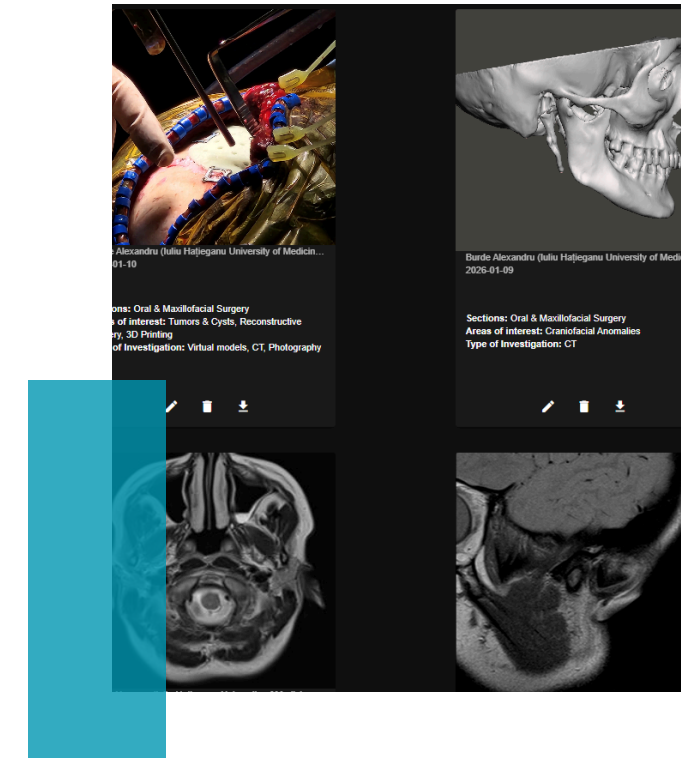

A key objective was to equip students, researchers, and healthcare professionals with the knowledge and skills required for the digital transformation of dentistry.

PNRR. Finanțat de Uniunea Europeană –
Următoarea Generație UE

Conținutul acestui material nu reprezintă în mod obligatoriu poziția oficială a Uniunii Europene sau a Guvernului României

Educational activities

- 5 specialized courses
- 6 workshops
- 2 international R&I mobilities
- 1 new undergraduate course introduced
- support for young researchers

DENTIHUB

Educational Platform

Educational materials, video content, and online learning resources were developed and made available through the DentiHub platform, supporting continuous learning in digital dentistry.